

E4RS II - Tip 11: Servo's Turnbuckle

For a better turnbuckle's angle, I now use a 503226 ballcup on the servo's pivot ball.

It lowers a bit the turnbuckle, and reduce drastically any risk of contact with the upper deck.

It also allows me to use a spacer under the steering bellcrank's pivot ball.

